

Standing in front of the battered remains of what once was known as

THE CUBE

He couldn't help wondering ...

Had he not traveled far ?
Crossed the galaxies ?
Boldly facing the perils of the black hole ?

With lethal and malignant Certainly, the cube had been lurking there aeons, waiting just for him ...

Showing its demonic features
Core of evil, black and old
Legions of unholy creatures
Breath of fire - cone of cold

Utmost evil's incarnation
Silver Hero - standing tall
In this quest for domination
Who will win and who will fall ?

Spilling blood and raging fire
Is the price they have to pay
Evil doomed to funeral pyre
Yes, it's Armageddon Day !

There was only one solution
War is over, now it's past
No more need for retribution
War turned into peace at last.
